Mackerel Notes.

The last of the Cape Shore fleet, seven in number, have arrived home since Monday with good salt mackerel fares. The captains report that off Sydney, O. B., after the fleet left for home, they saw more mackerel than ever they saw on the Cape Shore and do not hesitate to say that with two or three nights of good weather they could have filled their vessels twice over, and all came home with 600 or 700 barrels each. But unfortunately the weather was bad, the wind heavy and sea so rough that it was impossible to row a boat to windward and so good fishing was lost.

The fare of sch. Bessie M. Devine sold to Fred. Bradley at $10.50 per bbl., that of sch. Dauntless to George Perkins & Son at $10.50, sch. Speculator to Percy Hall at $10.62 1-2, that of sch. S. F. Maker to John Pew at $10.62 1-2, those of schs. Lottie G. Merchant and Lewis H. Giles to Wm. H. Jordan and these of schs. Nourmahal and Norumbega to the Gloucester Mackerel Co.
